

Imposing Medial Spectacle: The Indemann Observation Tower

Picture 1: During the day, the metallic surface shimmers and reflects light.

Picture 2: The organic colours and shaping of the Indemann allows to blend it into the surrounding landscape.

Picture 3: At night, a spectacular computer-controlled light show comes to life.

Picture 4: Designed by the Maastricht architecture firm Maurer United Architects, the Indemann extends his arm to point out the evolving landscape.
